Engineering Career Services Spring 2017
Considering Grad School Workshops

Log in to your CareerEngine account for the most current dates, times, and locations for workshops!

Getting into Graduate School

Not sure what you’re doing after graduation? There may still be time to apply to graduate school for Autumn 2017 and this session can help you do just that. This is a great workshop for those that would like to open up additional options following an upcoming graduation, as well as for those undergraduates who’d like to consider graduate school in years to come. We’ll be talking specifically about the application process and a timeline for applications now and in the future.

Thursday, January 26
4:15pm — 5:15pm
Bolz Hall 124

Graduate School 101

Come and learn the basics about schooling beyond your bachelor’s degree. We’ll answer general questions like, “What is Graduate School?” and also cover topics related to funding, applications, career objectives and much more. If you’re not sure what you’re planning to do when you graduate – come broaden your horizons and learn about a potential next step.

Tuesday, February 7
5:30pm — 6:30pm
Bolz Hall 124

Tuesday, April 4
4:15pm — 5:15pm
Bolz Hall 124

Graduate School Application: Where Do I Begin?

If you’re about to enter your final year of undergraduate study – this is the session for you! Come learn how best to prepare a graduate school application, your timeline moving forward, and how to be competitive among other applicants. ALL students can benefit by hearing about preparation tactics to be as competitive as possible in the graduate school application process.

Wednesday, March 8
5:30pm—6:30pm
Bolz Hall 124